

FRANK WILLIAMS

The Harbor of Doubt

THE HARBOR OF DOUBT

The Harbor of Doubt

by Frank Williams (1887-?)

Young Code Schofield had lost his schooner May Schofield in an Atlantic gale a few months ago, and now the townspeople on the small island of Grande Mignon off the coast of New Brunswick were beginning to talk suspiciously of the events surrounding that loss. Insurance investigators have been summoned to investigate, friends are alienating themselves from Code, and he finds himself challenged by even those he's known and trusted his whole life. Does Code Schofield have anything to prove, and if so, to whom, and why?

Total running time: 8:10:58

Frank Williams

Read by Roger Melin

Cover design by Kathryn Delaney
Illustration by G. W. Gage from the book

Frank Williams

THE HARBOR OF DOUBT